Handbook of Research on Counterfeiting and Illicit Trade

Edited by

Peggy E. Chaudhry

Villanova School of Business, Villanova University, Villanova, PA, USA
Contents

List of contributors vii
Foreword by Jeffrey L. Snyder xiii
Acknowledgments xv

1 Introduction: Trojan horses, pirate bays and anti-counterfeiting Peggy E. Chaudhry 1

PART I ALARMING TRENDS IN ILLICIT TRADE AND KEY GLOBAL ENFORCEMENT ISSUES

2 Illicit trade in counterfeit products: an examination of the opportunity–risk connection Brandon A. Sullivan, Jeremy M. Wilson and Rodney Kinghorn 13

3 Key global enforcement issues on illicit trade in goods Stefano Betti 30

4 Reaching beyond banks: how to target trade-based money laundering and terrorist financing outside the financial sector Ross S. Delston and Stephen C. Walls 52

PART II COUNTRY INITIATIVES DESIGNED TO STEM ILLICIT TRADE

5 Initiatives to stem illicit trade in the United States Peggy E. Chaudhry 79

6 Initiatives to stem illicit trade in Mexico Gloria Maria Dominguez Rodriguez 97

7 Initiatives to stem illicit trade in China’s e-commerce Davide Follador 123

PART III IMPACT OF ILLICIT TRADE ON SELECT INDUSTRY SECTORS

8 The challenge of curtailing the escalation of counterfeit pharmaceuticals Peggy E. Chaudhry 157

9 Counterfeiting luxury goods Ludovica Cesareo, Alberto Pastore and Patti Williams 193

10 Illicit trade in the tobacco sector Peggy E. Chaudhry and Alan S. Zimmerman 223
Handbook of research on counterfeiting and illicit trade

PART IV THE GROWING PROBLEM ON THE INTERNET

11 Overview of the magnitude of piracy on the internet
   Michael Tanji
   259

12 Social media's impact on intellectual property rights
   Dennis Collopy
   276

13 Dynamic shifts in music piracy: a review of the music industry and underlying technology innovations
   Hasshi Sudler
   322

14 Online brand protection
   Akino Chikada and Anil Gupta
   340

15 The looming shadow of illicit trade on the internet: botnets, malware and malvertising
   Peggy E. Chaudhry
   366

PART V MANAGERIAL AND CONSUMER PERCEPTIONS OF THE EFFECTIVENESS OF ANTI-COUNTERFEITING TACTICS

16 Analysis of anti-counterfeiting tactics to diffuse consumer demand
   Barbara Stöttinger, Elfriede Penz and Ludovica Cesareo
   387

17 Effectiveness against counterfeiting: four decades of strategic inquiry
   Deli Yang and Mahmut (Maho) Sonmez
   404

18 The critical role of intermediaries in stopping counterfeiting and piracy
   William Dobson
   432

19 Detecting counterfeits in the supply chain: how to use authentication methods
   Ian Lancaster
   459

Index

485