

The G20 and the “Base Erosion and Profit Shifting (BEPS) Project”

Sol Picciotto

with

Agustina Gallardo

Jeffery Kadet

Markus Henn

Maria Villanueva

for the BEPS Monitoring Group

Bonn 2017

Contents

Foreword

Abbreviations

Executive summary	1
1 Introduction	5
2 International tax governance	5
2.1 History and structures	5
2.1.1 The OECD	6
2.1.2 The UN Committee	8
2.1.3 Others	10
2.2 Political and technical initiatives for international tax reform	10
2.2.1 The 1970s to 1990s	11
2.2.2 The G7 and the ‘Harmful Tax Competition Project’	12
2.3 The link between finance and tax	14
2.4 The financial crisis and the new G20/OECD agenda	16
2.5 The launching of the BEPS Project	18
3 The BEPS Project	20
3.1 The process	20
3.2 The outcomes	22
4 The post-BEPS Project agenda	34
4.1 Remaining issues and the inclusive framework	34
4.2 Implementation of the BEPS outcomes	35
4.3 The continuing standard setting	38
5 The future of global tax governance	40
5.1 The policy arena	40
5.2 The actors and their roles	43
5.2.1 Governments	43
5.2.2 Civil society	44
5.2.3 Business and professionals	45
5.2.4 Inter-governmental organisations	45
6 Conclusions	46
References	47
Annex	51
Tax Annex to the Saint Petersburg G20 Leaders Declaration	53
Annex – The 15 actions to address BEPS	57