Examining the Role of Women Entrepreneurs in Emerging Economies

David Chitakunye
London School of Commerce, UK

Amandeep Takhar
University of Northampton, UK
Table of Contents

Preface.............................................................................................................................................. xv

Chapter 1
Strategies to Empower Women in Higher Education Positions: A Global Issue ................................................. 1
Cassandra Louise Sligh Conway, South Carolina State University, USA
Audrey McCrary-Quarles, South Carolina State University, USA
Yvonne Sims, South Carolina State University, USA
Cynthia Salley Nicholson, Chowan University, USA
Glacia Ethridge, North Carolina A&T State University, USA
Michelle Priester, South Carolina State University, USA
Tammara Thompson, Winston Salem State, USA

Chapter 2
Women Entrepreneurs in Turkey: A Contemporary Analysis ..............................................................23
Meral Dülger, Marmara University, Turkey

Chapter 3
Women as Social Entrepreneurs in Turkey ......................................................................................53
Berat Cicek, Mus Alparslan University, Turkey
Mehmet Ali Türkmenoğlu, Mus Alparslan University, Turkey

Chapter 4
Do Female Entrepreneurs Lead With Emotions? ..............................................................................75
Buşra Müceldili, Gebze Technical University, Turkey

Chapter 5
The Entrepreneurial Woman in the Nigerian Economy: Prospects, Obstacles, and Survival Strategies ........................................................................................................97
Temitayo Oluwakemi Akinpelu, Obafemi Awolowo University, Nigeria & University of Southampton, UK
Chapter 6
Female Entrepreneurship in the Nollywood Film Industry: Prospects and Problems .................................................................126
Floribert Patrick C. Endong, University of Calabar, Nigeria

Chapter 7
Experience of Female Entrepreneurs With Disabilities in Zimbabwe........145
Tafadzwa Rugoho, Great Zimbabwe University, Zimbabwe
Agnes Chindimba, Deaf Media Zimbabwe, Zimbabwe

Chapter 8
The South African Female Entrepreneurship Context: Enabling OR Constraining? .................................................................164
Sybert Mutereko, University of KwaZulu-Natal, South Africa

Chapter 9
Contemporary Perspectives on Women Entrepreneurship in India ..........186
Neeta Baporikar, Namibia University of Science and Technology,
Namibia & University of Pune, India

Chapter 10
What Women Entrepreneurs Need to Succeed in Emerging Economies? ....212
Purna Prabhakar Nandamuri, IFHE University, India
J. S. K. Chakravarthi, IFHE University, India
Gnanamkonda Vijayudu, IFHE University, India

Chapter 11
Development of Women-Led Micro and Small Enterprises in Indonesia: Their Motivations and Main Constraints ..........................239
Tulus T. H. Tambunan, Trisakti University, Indonesia

Chapter 12
Small Business Financing for Supporting SMEs in Indonesia: A Conceptual Study ........................................................................269
Eko Suyono, Jenderal Soedirman University, Indonesia
Amandeep Takhar, DeMontfort University, UK
David Chitakunye, BMPC Consulting Ltd, UK
Chapter 13
Women Entrepreneurship in a Fragile and Volatile Economy: The Case of Zimbabwe

Wellington Chibebe, International Trade Union Confederation, Belgium
Naome Chakanya, Labour and Economic Development Research Institute of Zimbabwe, Zimbabwe

Compilation of References ............................................................. 315

About the Contributors .................................................................. 364

Index ......................................................................................... 372